DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Training and Degrees: I am a Licensed Mental Health Counselor, Certified Sex Addiction Therapist, and a Registered Circle of Security Parent Educator. My degrees include, BS from Illinois State University in Economics and History, and MS from Indiana University in Information Studies and an MA in Counseling Psychology from The Seattle School of Theology & Psychology. I'm a Licensed Mental Health Counselor LH #60474055.

Counseling Orientation:

We live our lives in varying depths of relationship. It is in relationship that we find our greatest sense of wellbeing, and often our most profound vulnerability to pain and confusion. In the therapeutic relationship, we will work at shaping the future through understanding your past and address it in the here-and-now. Through this shaping we will begin to uncover your personal strengths, while exposing the dysfunctional patterns that keep most of us from becoming who we were intended to be. As we meet we will develop new thoughts and strategies together. Therapy will be a place to learn a new life script and rehearse becoming healthy and whole persons.

Work Experience:

For the past eight years I have been working as a psychotherapist. I work primarily with men and couples in their relationships; with anxiety, depression, addictions (sexual/pornography & chemical dependency) and/or self-esteem issues. In previous work, I have served as: a business manager, counselor and clinical supervisor for over three years with Catholic Community Services; twenty plus years as a librarian, IT Manager, and consultant to libraries, schools and community centers.

Fees: The fee for counseling is $120 per 53-minute session for individuals, $135 per 53-minute session for couples, and $50 per 90-minute group session. Pre-assessment initial intake: $150 for individuals and $200 for couples. Fees are adjusted annually on January 1 and will not increase more than $10 per year. Payments (cash, check or credit) are to be made at the beginning of each session. Credit Card payments will include a processing fee of up to 3.7% plus $0.15 per transaction. A $30 fee will be charged for returned checks. Unpaid balances incur the maximum finance charge allowed by law after 30 days. Outstanding balances may be sent to a collection agency.

Missed Appointments: In the event that you are unable to keep an appointment, please notify me by phone with a minimum of three days (72 hours) in advance. If you miss your appointment for whatever reason and fail to give me adequate notice, you will be responsible for the full fee for the session. If you are late, I will still stop at our regular ending time in order to keep my schedule, and you will still be required to pay for the entire session. In the event of a missed appointment, the bill will reflect a late cancellation instead of a clinical session. Insurance companies will not reimburse for missed appointments; thus you will be charged the regular fee for the session (not the co-pay or amount designated by insurance). If I have an emergency, I will notify you as soon as possible of my need to reschedule our appointment.

Termination of Treatment: When you wish to terminate treatment, please give a minimum of one week's notice. You may terminate treatment at any time without moral, legal, or financial obligation beyond payment of services already rendered. It is expected that we will discuss the prospect of termination so that both parties will be clear about any details that need attention as part of the termination process. If you fail to schedule a future appointment, cancel a scheduled appointment, or fail to keep a scheduled appointment and do not contact me within 30 days of the date of last recorded contact, it will be understood that you have terminated treatment. I shall have no further obligation to you once treatment has been terminated.

Testifying in Court: If you become involved in any legal proceedings that require my participation, you will be expected to pay for all of my professional time. This includes any preparation and transportation time, even if I am called to testify by another party. Because of the difficulty of legal involvement, I charge $500 per hour for preparation and travel, for attendance (waiting and participation) at any legal proceeding. Having said this, I am not a certified child custody evaluator and will be unable to help you legally if this is your purpose in pursuing treatment with me.

Choosing a Counselor: You have the right to choose a counselor who best suits your needs. You may seek a second opinion from another mental health practitioner or may terminate therapy at any time.

State Mandated Disclosure: I have broad discretion to release any information that I deem relevant in situations where I believe my patient or others to be at risk of physical harm, physical or sexual abuse, molestation, or severe neglect.

Consultations: I regularly consult with other professionals regarding clients with whom I am working. This allows me to gain other perspectives and ideas about how to better help you reach your goals. These consultations are conducted in such a way that confidentiality is maintained.

State Registration: Therapists practicing psychotherapy for a fee must be registered/certified with the Department of Health for the protection of the public health and safety. Registration of an individual with the department does not include recognition of any practice standards, nor does it necessarily imply the effectiveness of any treatment. The purpose of the Counselor Credentialing Act (Chapter 18.19 RCW) is (a) to provide protection for public health and safety, and (b) to empower the citizens of the State of Washington by providing a complaint process against those counselors who commit acts of unprofessional conduct.

Unprofessional Conduct: The brochure titled "Counseling or Hypnotherapy Patients" lists ways in which counselors may work in an unprofessional manner. If you suspect that my conduct has been unprofessional in any way, please contact the Department of Health at the following address and phone number: Department of Health, Counselor Programs, PO Box 47869, Olympia, WA 98504-7869; (360) 664-9098

Contacting Me by Phone: You may leave me a voice message at 253-324-0705. I check voicemail messages periodically and will typically return your call within 24 hours. Please limit your phone conversation needs to appointment scheduling and emergencies. Emergencies: If you are in an emergency situation and cannot reach me, please call one of the following numbers for help: General Emergencies: 911 and/or Crisis Clinic: (800) 244-5767 or (206) 461-3222
